american ethnographic film and personal documentary is a critical history of american filmmakers crucial to the development of ethnographic film and personal documentary the boston and cambridge area is notable for nurturing these approaches to documentary film via institutions such as the mit film section and the film study center the carpenter center and the visual and environmental studies department at harvard scott macdonald uses pragmatism s focus on empirical experience as a basis for measuring the groundbreaking achievements of such influential filmmakers as john marshall robert gardner timothy asch ed pincus miriam weinstein alfred guzzetti ross mcelwee robb moss nina davenport steve ascher and jeanne jordan michel negroponte john gianvito alexander olch amie siegel ilisa barbash and lucien castaing taylor by exploring the cinematic personal and professional relationships between these accomplished filmmakers macdonald shows how a pioneering engaged and uniquely cosmopolitan approach to documentary developed over the past half century global jihadism exposes the core doctrine and strategy of today s global jihadist movement the first half of the book explores the ideas upon which groups such as al qaeda are built including the concepts of jihad al wala wal bara takfir and tawhid jarret brachman exposes a genre of jihadist strategic scholarship that has been virtually ignored in the west and helps to situate it within the broader salafist religious movement the second half explores the thinking and activities of al qaeda s propaganda machine explaining its intricacies and idiosyncrasies it includes case studies on the rise and fall of global jihadist terrorism in saudi arabia post 9 11 and highlights the explosive results of bringing theory to bear on practice in the united kingdom over the past twenty years the book concludes by providing innovative strategies for combating the global jihadist ideology
